

Mausoleum

Located at Woden Cemetery, Christ the Redeemer is a unique mausoleum surrounded by large, majestic trees.

The mausoleum comprises secure internal and external burial crypts.

Mausoleum Crypts

Interment options include family vaults, double crypts, single crypts, and columbarium niches.

The price for interment crypts includes an inscription, ceramic photo, bronze vase, and eternal light.

Columbarium Niches

Columbarium niches are for interment of cremated remains (ashes).

By way of memorial, Canberra Memorial Parks offer glass-fronted niches with an etched inscription. Family members can place photos and keepsakes behind the glass along with the urn.

Also available are marble paneled niches which include an inscription and ceramic photo.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is embalming required for mausoleum interments?

Yes. Under health regulations, embalming is mandatory for mausoleum interments.

Can I select my own urn for the columbarium?

Yes. Canberra Memorial Parks can offer you a range of urns to choose from. Fees apply. You can also provide your own urn if you wish.

Is a special coffin required?

Yes. Because the deceased is embalmed a zinc lined coffin or a bio seal bag will be required. A funeral director will be able to provide additional information at the time of need.

Are there any annual fees?

No. The purchase price includes maintenance fees in perpetuity.
