

Ainslie Wall

Available at the Sanctuary Creek memorial garden in the grounds of Gungahlin Cemetery.

The Ainslie Wall offers a unique, cylindrical wall interment option.

Crafted from 'Indian Red' granite, the Ainslie Wall has been designed specifically for Canberra Memorial Parks and represents the contours and walking trails of Mount Ainslie.

You can choose from either a glass or bronze memorial plaque.

We may be able to offer additional companion allotments, depending on availability, if you would like more than one allotment.

Interments can take place 7 days a week. The memorial plaque is installed at the time of interment to seal the interment space.

You can also choose to hold a service or gathering in the Sanctuary Creek memorial garden at the time of interment.

Plantings and flowers

The horticulturalists at Canberra Memorial Parks are responsible for maintenance, landscaping and plantings. Individual plantings by families are not permitted and will be removed. However, you are welcome to leave fresh flowers at the memorial.

Keepsakes and trinkets

The Ainslie Wall is designed for the interment of cremated remains only. Other memorial options within Sanctuary Creek may allow the interment of keepsakes and trinkets, depending on your requirements.

Please ask us about other memorial options if you would like to inter keepsakes or trinkets with your loved one.

Reserving an allotment

You can reserve a single allotment or multiple allotments. Payment for allotments must be received in full.

You do not need to pay the plaque fees to reserve an allotment.

Choosing a plaque

You can choose from a bronze or glass plaque at the Ainslie Wall.

You can arrange and pay for the plaque at a later time. Please feel free to take time to choose your desired wording and plaque design.

However, the plaque must be installed at the same time as the interment.
